

Treasury Department,

Bureau of the Mint,

Washington, D. C.,

August 6, 1894.

Superintendent U. S. Mint,

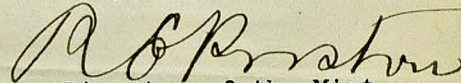

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Sir:

It is very doubtful whether the amount of one cent bronze pieces in the Treasury, which can be transferred to you for cleaning and reissue will be sufficient to meet the public demand during the Fall and early Winter months.

I desire that you will keep the Bureau fully advised as to the amount of orders received, so that in case it should be necessary to purchase new blanks, there will be ample time to have the same delivered before your stock of one cent pieces is exhausted.

Respectfully yours,

Director of the Mint.
